I. DESCRIPTION OF THE MATTER

On December 22, 2020, the SEC filed a civil injunctive action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, alleging that Ripple and its current and former CEOs (Brad Garlinghouse (“Garlinghouse”) and Christian Larsen (“Larsen”)) violated Section 5 of the Securities Exchange of 1933 (“Securities Act”), 15 U.S.C. s 77e (“Section 5”). The SEC alleges, among other things, that the Defendants violated Section 5 by offering and selling digital asset securities known as “XRP” without a registration statement being filed or in effect as to such offers and sales (the “Civil Action”).

[REDACTED]

Accordingly, SEC staff seeks the assistance of the FCA in obtaining records from Bitfisk outlined in Part IV.

If the electronic records are more than 12 MB, please contact us for additional instructions. Please send any records produced in hard copy to the address on this letterhead.

In addition, please do not identify the SEC as the requesting party when seeking documents and information from Bitlish.

B. Authentication

SEC staff also requests the assistance of the FCA in having Bitlish authenticate the documents produced in response to this request (the "Requested Documents"). SEC staff seeks the ability to introduce the Requested Documents as evidence in a U.S. court proceeding. In order for SEC staff to introduce the Requested Documents as evidence, we need to obtain a sworn certificate of authenticity of business records ("Certificate") that the documents were made and kept by Bitlish in the ordinary course of business. The Certificate should include a specific description of the documents being produced and be signed by an individual who has knowledge of the procedures for maintaining records at Bitlish. We ask the FCA to attach its appropriate Certificate when issuing a notice of requirement to Bitlish. If Bitlish may not be compelled to provide a Certificate, we ask that FCA staff request one voluntarily from Bitlish.

V. CONFIDENTIALITY

This letter is confidential and privileged under U.S. law. Pursuant to Securities Exchange Act Subsection 24(f)(1), the SEC does not waive any privileges (including, but not limited to, work product, deliberative process, and law enforcement privileges) in transferring the information to, or permitting the information to be used by, FCA. We ask that this letter and its contents not be communicated to any third party without the authorization of SEC staff. We also ask that you notify us of any legally enforceable demand for this letter and that you assert any appropriate legal exemptions or privileges with respect to this letter as may be appropriate. If FCA is required to notify any third party about this request, we would respectfully ask that you discuss such notice requirement with us before communicating with the third party.

So that the SEC may seek to protect your response, please notify us on an ongoing basis if communications and information that you share with us in connection with this matter contain or may contain: (1) privileged information (and, if so, identify privileges that apply) and/or (2) records, which if publicly disclosed, would violate the laws applicable to your agency.
